TPMG NETWORK

Sales Partner Program

Let our team sell for you — across the global life sciences industry.

When a client is looking for a service like yours, TPMG channels that request directly to you — and our team actively promotes and sells your services across the global life sciences industry.

What TPMG Does For You

- Sources qualified leads from within the TPMG community of life sciences professionals.
- Handles active marketing and pre-sale: engaging, qualifying, and confirming genuine client interest before it reaches you.
- Features your services in TPMG newsletters, articles, and executive interviews.
- Runs awareness campaigns for your product or service, driving traffic to your website.
- Includes you in marketing actions organized by TPMG.
- Conducts personalized outreach on LinkedIn and other social networks — manually or via official platform tools, always compliant with each platform's terms.

What You Get

- A dedicated service page and professional company profile in the TPMG Services Marketplace.
- Qualified, interested leads — informed and ready for you to close.
- Ongoing visibility across TPMG's newsletters, articles, and professional network.
- You keep full control: proposals, pricing, execution, and client relationships stay yours.

Who Can Apply

Organizations and independent professionals providing specialized services to the life sciences industry — consulting firms, agencies, CROs, medical communications specialists, regulatory consultants, digital health companies, and more. We only work with the best in their category: applications are individually reviewed to confirm recognized excellence in your specialty.

Steps to Become a Partner

- Apply: submit your application for review.
- Get verified: TPMG confirms your organization is recognized as best-in-class in its specialty.
- Sign on: once approved, you sign the Sales Partner Agreement and start your Sales Partner Membership (USD 200/month).
- Send your materials: provide your logo, media kit, and a company or product presentation so TPMG can build your profile and start actively selling your services.
- Go live: your dedicated service page is published, and TPMG begins active marketing, pre-sale, and lead channeling on your behalf.
- Sell: you receive qualified, interested leads and take it from there — proposals, pricing, and delivery stay yours.

Sales Partner Membership	Beyond the Membership
